Steps to Take if Your Child is Missing

Call 911 Immediately:

- State that your child with a disability is missing.
- Clearly state your child's name.
- Tell them the time you noticed your child was missing.
- Describe what your child was wearing to the best of your ability.
- Provide them with all of the information on the Alert for Missing Child with a Disability form.
- If your child is attracted to water, ask them to search nearby water sources immediately.
- Request that an Amber Alert be issued.

Keep Track of Everything:

- Write down any instructions given by emergency personnel.
- Have the Emergency Point Person keep track of where people have searched.

Contact your Emergency Point Person:

- Ask them to contact people on the Search Party list.
- Assign them to stay in contact with the people in the Search Party.
- If you have other children, have them care for them or make arrangements for alternate childcare.
- Ask them to keep in contact with emergency personnel to stay updated on the search.

Other Information

Law Enforcement Fax Numbers: If local emergency personnel do not already have your child's information on file, have your Emergency Point Person send them the information.
